Things to do in San Francisco - Part 48 - The Northern California Cherry Blossom Festival

Yahoo Travel says this about The Northern California Cherry Blossom Festival

The Cherry Blossom Festival takes place in Japantown during two weekends in April. It showcases traditional Japanese arts with continuous demonstrations of, among others, tea ceremonies, martial arts, taiko drumming, and traditional dancing on an outdoor stage in the Japan Center. There are also parades, Asian food kiosks, and live music. Fewer street merchants attend than at most street fairs, but the merchandise offered, such as Kanji calligraphy scrolls, are of good quality and some are unique to this festival. Event is free; some vendors may accept credit cards.
