Things to do in San Francisco - Part 46 - Fort Mason

Yahoo Travel says this about Fort Mason: This is an old military base that has been transformed into a Mecca of culture in San Francisco. It is the home of an array of galleries, museums, theaters, performance halls, nonprofit organizations, classes, festivals and events. The center offers numerous facilities available for rent and can accommodate both small and large events. Just a few of the tenants you can visit at the Fort Mason Center are the National Park Service, Museo Italo Americano, the African American Historical & Cultural Society, the Craft & Folk Art Museum, the Oceanic Society, and Young Performers Theatre.
