Things to do in San Francisco - Part 51 - HANG

Yahoo Travel says this about HANG:

The objective of this gallery near Union Square is to link emerging artists with emerging collectors. Within the modern floor space of steel and canvas this place features work by the best up coming talent in the Bay area at reasonable prices. Find a wide range of styles that are continually rotated. A great choice for young and/or new art connoisseurs, this gallery offers a rental program so buyers can be 100 percent sure they want a piece before they make the commitment. A rewarding experience all-around; unknown artists receive the exposure they deserve, while patrons view art in a pleasant and casual environment.
