Things to do in San Francisco - Part 35 - Kertesz Fine Art Gallery

The City has many small, privately owned art galleries. This is one of them.

Yahoo Travel says this about the Kertesz Fine Art Gallery:Specializing in Fine 19th and 20th century

American and European Paintings, this gallery was established in 1969. It features primarily romantic, realistic paintings and takes pride in making available to its customers both contemporary and old master works, including works of early California painters. You'll even see paintings by Mr. Kertesz himself. Whether you are looking for a lively painted landscape of the West Coast or a postcard view painting of Venice, the charm of this gallery reminds you that buying art can be an artistic experience in and of itself.
