Things to do in San Francisco - Part 50 - Lincoln Park Golf Course

Yahoo Travel says this about the Lincoln Park Golf Course:

Possibly the most beautiful views of any public golf course in the United States. This par 68 course, hard by the Golden Gate, is on the short and hilly side. A bit of Scotland, perhaps with fresh ocean breezes and sometimes challenging greens. There is a short range at which you must shag your own balls. Tee times can be made up to a week in advance, a necessity on weekends. Admission fees are $23 on weekdays and $29 on weekends.
