Things to do in San Francisco - Part 29 - San Francisco Fire Engine Tours & Adventures

This looks like fun! Although I have never been on the tour, I'm sure this would be a great adventure. It ranks #26 by people who read and contribute to Yahoo Travel.

Yahoo says this:

Here is a chance not only to do some sightseeing, but to become a sight yourself on a tour like no other. The world famous Fire Engine tour departs from the Cannery at Fisherman's Wharf, travels through the Presidio, to Ft. Point, across the Golden Gate Bridge and through Sausalito. Take photos at Ft. Baker and check out the Union Street neighborhood as the tour returns back to Fisherman's Wharf. The whole trip is approximately 75 minutes. The couple who run this tour live in a historic 108 year-old San Francisco Firehouse and their enthusiasm is contagious. It's a show on wheels. Tickets: Adults $35; children up to 12 $25; and teens 13-17 $30. Advanced reservations are recommended as seating is limited.
