Things to do in San Francisco - Part 54 - Ski Sugar Bowl

If you're up for a day trip and enjoy skiing, there is still a lot of snow and great spring skiing at Sugar Bowl. Only about an hour and a half out of Sacramento on I-80, take the Norden, Soda Springs exit and turn right at the stop sign. About 3 miles up the road is the entrance to Sugar Bowl.

A friend and I went yesterday and the runs were well groomed, though a little icy early morning and late afternoon. For a day trip this resort is perfect because it's much closer than Alpine or Squaw and has longer runs than Boreal or Soda Springs (so I'm told). We like to go mid-week to avoid the crowds. And if we get more rain next week as predicted, there's a chance some of it will end up as snow at the higher elevations!
