Things to do in San Francisco - Part 37 - SS Jeremiah O'Brien

It might be best to hurry and see this one, given the City Fathers' dislike for the military. In a city where supervisors keep trying to stop the Blue Angels from flying during Fleet Week, and who kept the USS Iowa from being docked here as a museum, who knows how long it will be before this national treasure is asked to be moved somewhere else?

Yahoo Travel says this about the SS Jeremiah O'Brien:

This is a World War II Liberty Ship open to the public. It is one of only two fully restored, operating ships out of 2,710 that were used during the war. In addition to being available for private parties, the ship conducts San Francisco Bay cruises in May and October.
